Social and Personal

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Scott Booker to Mr. John Spooner Epes, of Petersburg was celebrated at half-past 8 o'clock yesterday in the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. John Edward Bookbride's mother, Mrs. John Edward Book-or, of No. 18 Saratoga Street, Suffolk, Va., the Rev. L. E. Barton, of the First Baptist Church, officiating. The floral scheme in decoration was

The floral scheme in decoration was svoived in green and white, the Booker home having the lower floor canvased in white, grouped in palms, and brilliantly lighted with inyriads of white was tapers in silver and crystal candelabra. The altar was erected in the bow window of the front drawing room and covered with white carnations and smilax. It had a background of tall, graceful palms.

An orchestra from a palm screen in the hall sounded the sweet strains of the wedding chorus from Lohengrin, and, as a throbbing undertone during the trothplight, the beautiful air, "I Love You, Dear, and Only You."

The bride entered with her uncle, Mr. Charles Mr. Boswell, of this city, who gave her away. She wore an exculsite creation of white crope de chine, built on taffeta, with duchesse lace berthe, and pearl embroidery. Her vell was caught with a pearl and dlamond spray, and she carried a shower bouquet of lilles of the valley.

Her maids of honor, Miss Alma Elam and Miss Faye Parker, were effectively gowned in white silk mull over liberty satin. Their flowers were La France Tosses.

Dr. E. L. McGill, of New York, was evolved in green and white, the Booker

Proses.
Dr. E. L. McGill, of New York, was best man. Ushers included Mr. A. H. Hargrave and Mr. Frank A. Holliday.
At the reception after the ceremony Mrs. J. E. Booker, the mother of the bride, was in black creps do chine and violets.

Mrs. J. E. Booker, the mother of the bride, was in black crepe do chine and violets.

Mrs. R. O. Epes, of Petersburg, the groom's mother, in white Lansdowne, lace and dlamonds.

Guesis from a distance were Miss Waller Jeffress, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Boswell, Master Robert Boswell and Miss Anabel Jenkins, of Richmond; Mrs. R. O. Epes, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Patterson, Miss Mary Patterson, Mrs. Sally Friend, Mr. Henry Patterson, Mr. Fred Tample, Mr. George Harrison, Mr. Robert Watson and Mr. Meade Doyle, of Petersburg; Mrs. J. Griff Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Harris, Miss Grace Haswell, of Portsmouth, and Mr. and Mrs. R. Y. Harrous, of Churchland, Va.

Dining room adornment was in pink and white, the table having a border of smilax and a center plaque of La France roses. Briddl gifts showed an elegant array of cut glass, silver and other beautiful and useful articles.

At the conclusion of their wedding tour Mr. and Mrs. Epes will welcome their friends in Petersburg, where they will make their future home.

Cards have been issued amouncing the appreaching marriage of Miss Kath-

Cards have been issued announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Katherine J. Stiles, formerly of Patersburg, Va. but more recently of Richmond, to Mr. Howard J. Nuckols, of the firm of Herring & Nuckols.

The marriage will take place in New York city Tuesday, December Sth.

The marriage of Miss Adele Florence Turner to Mr. Thomas Allien Brinkley, of Ecotland Neck. N. C., took place in this city November 39th, the Rev. G. O. Mcade, of Christ Episcopal Church, performing the ceremony.

Mrs. Brinkey is the daughter of the late Thomas Sumpter Turner, of New Orleans, La., and of his wife, who before her wedding was Miss Laura Virginia Whitehead, of Petersburg.

A cordial invitation is extended to all friends of the "Retreat for the Sick" to attend a birthday party in the parlors of the institution on Friday, December 11th,

Do not fail to attend the sale at Mrs. Ot-way S. Allen's, at No. 15 North Sixth Street, Tuesday, Dec. 4th, for the benefit of the Anne Bruce Page cot at the Shel tering Arms Hospital. The ladies interest tering Arms hospital. The factors indicased have been working for some time with this sale in view, and they have collected many beautiful articles, and will offer them at very low prices. Mrs Mary E Bell, of Charles City county, will give an evening of "Original Old-Time Darkey Impersonations" in the audience hall of the Woman's Club, December 10th at 8:30 P. M.

cember 10th, at 3:30 P. M.
Mrs. Bell, who is a woman of very unusual talents and accomplishments, has appeared often in New York, where she was most cordially received and heard with much enthusiasm.
George Cary Eggleston, the author of Dorothy South, wrote her after attending one of her evenium:

one of her evenings:
"I have never heard anything of the kind one-half so good. You have completely fathomed the darkey character with all its humor and pathos.

with all its humor and pathos.
"I realy think you have a great literary and historical work to do by your presentation of these splendidly conceived places of yours."

Dr. Thomas Nelson Page says of Mrs. Bell's impersonations:

Bell's impersonations:

"They appear to me unusually natural and interesting. The dialect as rendered by her is perfect, and she has an unusual appreciation of both humor and pathos."

The admission cards, at fifty cents, can be procured from the janitress at the club, from the Jefferson, from Poythress' and Polk Miller's drugstore. Patronesses of the evening will be Mrs. L. R. Dashiell, Mrs. G. W. Bagby, Miss Claire Guillaume, Mrs. Joseph R. Andergon and Mrs. William T. Robins.

Invitations have been sent out by Miss Bacon and the art class of the Woman's College for an "at home" to be given Friday evening from 7:00 to 10 o'clock in the college chape!

The autumn studies of the class, including object work drawings and paintings from life and still life, will be altractively exhibited.

A charming programme has been been tractively exhibited.

A charming programme has been arranged and the evening holds out the same prospective measure of enjoyment which has always been a distinguishing which has always been a distinguishing feature of the art entertainments at the Woman's College.

This is Donation Day at the Home for Needy Confederate Women, No. 1726 Grove Avenue. The ladies in charge of the Home are much in need of flour and

THE INCREASED DEMAND each succeding year for SUIT-ABLE ASTILLES APPROPRIATE FOR XMAS GIFTS and the consequent rush incident to the last days of the holidays make it necessary to impress upon our patrons the ADVISA-EILITY OF MAKING EARLY SE-LECTIONS.

Test Upon satisfactory references we will now be pleased to send goods out of town on approval. Just before Christmas this will be impossible.

Galt & Bro., Jewellers, Silversmiths, Stationers,

1107 Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D. C.

fuel, and gifts along these and all other lines will be much appreciated.

The Rev. Benjamin Dennis, the Rev. Dr. C. H. Gardner, the Rev. I. M. Mercer and Dr. Keiley, of New York, will all be present and add to the pleasure during the afternoon hours from 4 to 8 o'clock, when the ladies of the Ways and Means Committee will tender a reception to which the public is cordially invited. Every one is asked to come out and inspect the Home which they have so generously aupported. The Reception Committee consists of the following ladies; Mrs. A. J. Montague, Miss Ruby Bodeker, Mrs. A. J. Pyle, Mrs. L. O. Miller, Mrs. John W. Richardson, Mrs E. Raab, Mrs. Gordon McCabe, Miss A. R. W. Reddy, Mrs. James Keith, Mrs. Eppa Hunton, Mrs. R. B. Davis, of Petersburg; Mrs. Conway Baker, and Mrs. S. B. Witt.

Witt.
Music will be rendered by Mr. Regi-nald Walker. Mr. and Mrs. Eugenc Clowes, and Captain Frank Cunningham. Light refreshments will be served by Light refreshments will be served by the young ladies who took part in the drill at the late Confederate fair, attired in the same costumes which were then so much admired. The house will be beautifully decorated with palms and cut flowers, red and white, the Confederate colors predominating as much as possible. . . .

One of the handsomest social events of One of the mandsomest social events of the season will be the reception given by Colonel and Mrs. John W. Gordon to-day, from 5 to 7 o'clock, and from 9 to 11 o'clock P. M., to introduce their de-butante daughter, Miss Nellie H. Gordon, to Richmond society.

Miss Sophie White, who is one of the brightest and most charming of the young Richmond hostesses, will entertain a few friends at 5 o'clock tea Friday afternoon, and will give a seven-in-hand cuchre on Tuesday next, in honor of her guest, Miss Bessie Doyle, of Norfolk.

Personal Mention.

Dr. George Tucker Smith, of the United States navy, spent a few hours in passing through Richmond lately.
Dr. Smith is a son of Professor Francis Smith at the University of Virginia, and a grandson of the late distinguished George Tucker, for whom he is named.

Mrs. Peyton Wise left yesterday to spend the winter in New York and Wash-ington.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Witt, of Lynchburg, are stopping at the Jefferson for a few days. Mrs. Best and Miss Florence Best, who have been for the last week at their home in Ronceverte, W. Va., have returned to the city. Dr. William F. Kelley, of New York, who will be a guest of honor of the af-ternoon at the Home for Needy Confederate Women, has given up a trip to Petersburg to be present with the ladies who greatly appreciate his courtesy and interest.

Nothing More Heard.

Nothing further has been heard hero concerning the accident to the Lapsley on the Congo River, in which one missionary and twenty-three natives med death by drowning. It is impossible, therefore, to get any idea of what caused the capsizing of the little steamer. No additional information is expected here with one of the survivors can write, and until one of the survivors can write, and it takes a letter nearly ninety days to get to Richmond from Luebo.

ANIMAL STORIES FOR OUR BOYS AND GIRLS

. The Long-Tail Cat.

"What a wonderful fellow is the mon-key!" said the cat one day. "He is as nimble as a flea, and with that remark-able tail of his can swing about in the trees without ever using his feet. Why can't I have a nice long tall like his instead of this one, which is of no use to me?"

"You can have one if you wish," said a little hoptoad who gat at the roadside blinking his big eyes in the summer's

"Pray tell me how." cried the cat, "Fasten the end of your tall to your doorknob, and whenever anybody calls at your house and opens the door your tall will be stretched a little. After a while it will have been stretched so much that it will be as long as the monkey's," said the little hoptoad.

HIS TAIL WAS AS LONG AS TWO

HIS TAIL WAS-AS LONG AS TWO TAILS.

So the cat fastened the end of his tail to the doorknob, and pretty soon a visitor called at his house and gave the door a fearful pull.

"Ouch!" How it did hurt poor Mr. Cat. And then somebody else called and then comebody else, and then romebody else, and then romebody else, and then there was a yank at the cat's tail and a yell from the cat. After swhile, sure enough the cat's tail was as and any a year from the cat. After awhile, sure enough the cat's tail was as long as the monkey's, but such a miserable painful tail it was! There was only one thing to do, and that was to have the tail cut off entirely.

"I haven't any tail at all now," cried the cat.

"I haven't had any since I was a tag-"I haven't had any since I was a tag-pole," said the hoptoad,

POEMS YOU OUGHT TO KNOW

Whatever your occupation may be, and however crowded your hours with affairs, do not fail to secure at least a few minutes every day for refreshment of your inner life with a bit of poetry.—Prof. Charles Eliot

No. 46.

THE SOLDIER'S DREAM.

BY THOMAS CAMPBELL

The scene of the following peem was the field between Ratisbon and Ingolatedt, where Campbell witnessed the battle between the French and Austrians, which was fough in 1800. We have slready printed one peem referring to the battle, No. 5, called "An Indient of The French Camp." The har est was upon the ground, the battle had ceased, the Hungarian trumpet sounded to quarters, the "wolf scarring faggot," blazed at abort intervals around the encampment, from the unreaped wheat the soldiers framed a heaty allet of straw, and threw himself down for a troubled sleep, which Campbell pathetically describes. The last line of the second stanta; used to be "Thrice etc the Cock Crew. I dreamt it again." Thomas Campbell was born 1777 and died, 1841.

UR bugles sang truce, for the night-cloud had lowered, And the sentinel stars set their watch in the sky; And thousands had sunk on the ground overpowered, The weary to sleep, and the wounded to die,

> When reposing that night on my pallet of straw By the wolf-searing fagot that guarded the slain; At the dead of the night a sweet vision I saw. And thrice ere the morning I dreamt it again.

Methought from the battlefield's dreadful array, Far, far I had roamed on a desolate track; Twas autumn and sunshine arose on the way To the home of my fathers, that welcome me back.

I flew to the pleasent fields traversed so oft. In life's morning march, when my bosom was young; I heard my own mountain goats bleating aloft,

And know the sweet strain that the corn reapers sung Then pledged we the wine cup, and fondly I swore

From my home and my weeping friends never to part; My little ones kissed me a thousand times o'er, And my wife sobbed aloud in her fullness of heart,

"Slav slav with us-rest, thou art weary and worn;" And fain was their war-broken soldier to stay; But sorrow returned with the dawning of morn. And the voice in my dreaming car melted away.

DAILY FASHION HINTS.

LADIES' SHIRT WAIST OF BLOUSE.

Perhaps there is no item of feminine apparel to which more attention is devoted than the separate blouse or shirtwaist. Instead of the plain, severe styles, with collar attached, it has become a marvel of ingenuity—indeed so great is the variety of this accommodating garment that there is no woman, old or young, who cannot find one to suit her requirements. Among the new styles those having the long sheulder offect produced by yokes, and with stole front, add first place.

In the model shown here a very graceful shaping is given the yoke in both front and back. The fanciful shaped collar and cuff are both included in the pattern. The foundation is made with fullness on the shoulder laid in two deep pleats and the pattern is made so as to bring, the straight of the material under the arm. This advantage cannot be overestimated, as every one knows how annoying it is to have the shirt-waist constantly creeping up over the belt when ever the arm is raised. The pattern also LADIES' SHIRT WAIST OF BLOUSE.

includes a peplum, which is by far the most satisfactory way of nishing off a shirt-waist. The sleeve is the regular Bishop shaping with full lower puff, which carries out the idea of yoke shaping. The mode is suitable to any of the new waistings in either cotton, slik or woollens. A charming development would be in blue Louisene, usink slik crescents for trimming. This trimming, however might be in slik, cut out in new moor shaped pieces and appliqued on, or one right use the popular Teneriffe wheels, pircing them as shown in the illustration.

Tussian crash, a fabric resembling toweling in quality, is a new material which should combine beautifully with ceru crochet rings and half-moons. Slik, serge, albatross, challis, voile, merce rized cottons or waistings are satisfactory materials.

No. 5102—Sizes 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inchs, bust measure. No. 6103—Sizes 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 43 and 41 inche, bust measure.

and 41 inchs, bust measure.

On receipt of 19 cents this pattern will be sent to any address. All orders must be directed to THE LITTLE FOLKS PATTERN CO., 78 Fifth Avenue, New York. When ordering, please do not fall to mention number.

Address.....

Dinner for December 3d. Broiled Chicken, Baked Pork and Beans, Tomato Soy, Potato Salad,
Broiled Rice, Stewed Tomatoes,
Creamed Asparagus, Baked Sweet

Potatoes

Wine Jelly, Whipped Cream, Sponge Cake, Coffee.

RECIPE FOR BAKED SWEET POTA-TOPS. Belect six medium size yellow potatoes,

Wash them and boil until tender. Remove the skins and slice the potatoes evenly, being careful not to break the slices. Place the slices in a baking dish, powdering them with sugar and nutmeg, and buttering them well. When the dish is full, pour over the potatoes a cup of krown slierry, sprinkled thickly with sugar; cover with bits of butter and set in the range until well browned.

Anne's Birthday.

Three years old to-night, my darling.
Just gone three steps on life's way,
But you're getting arthur on it
Hour after hour and day by day.

Haven't seen yet life's grim Sorrows;
Alay be you never will.
Yet the little feet will atumble.
As they clamber up the hill. Mighty rough, some of the places
Make you want to stop and rest,
But you'll have to keep on climbing.
Boling just your very best.

When time brings you to the summ And life's path is towards the west, Weary feet must still go onward To the bottom-there to rest.

When at last the journey's ended, When life's pathway's lost to sight, May the wayworn, tired pilgrim Rest as sweetly as to-night. November 25, 1993.

THE BOTTLE WITH THIS LABEL Means HEALTH to You.

ECHOLS' PIEDMONT

CON CENTRATED

IRON &

Forthe BLOOD.

NATURAL MINERAL WATER THAT HAS NO EQUAL FOR THE CURE OF ALL DISEASES OF THE BLOOD; RESTORES HELTH WHEN NOTH-ING ELSE WILL.

SURE CURE FOR

Indigestion, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Kidney and Bladder Troubles, Female Compilaints, Malaria, Nervousness, Stomach and Bowel Disorders, Piles, Inactive Liver, Scrofula and All Blood and Skin Diseases.

DIRECTIONS-Teaspoonful in half Diffections—reaspoonini in analysiass water after each meal and at bed-time, but if stomach is weak begin with ten drops and gradually increase. If constipated, or the water seems to constipate, use some mild purgative to move bowels once per day, until the water has removed cause of trouble. Children under five years, of trouble. Children under five years five drops to half teaspoonful in a little water. Special directions on circular

PREPARED BY

J. M. Echols Co., Lynchburg, Va. PRICE ONE DOLLAR FOR BEST RESULTS USE NO

STIMULANTS. The chief feature of the Cornell exhibit at the St. Louis Exposition will be a place for model, civit by six feet, of the campus. This will show the streets, buildings, corres and waterfalls, all in chief the remeasure the groves 2,000 miniature irses have been ordered from Germany. The work is under the supervision of Prof. N. H. Ogden. For sale by OWENS & MINOR DRUG CO., and other good drugglats. J. M. ECHOLB CO. Lynchburg, Va.

physicians' prescriptions, and should be avoided by every one who values health and happiness. Knowing that the great majority of druggists are reliable, we supply the immense demand for our excellent remedy entirely through the druggists, of whom it may be purchased everywhere, in original packages only, at the regular price of fifty cents per bottle, but as exceptions exist it is necessary to inform the public of the facts, in order that all may decline or return any imitation which may be sold to them. If it does not bear the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package, do not hesitate to return the article and to demand the return of your money, and in future go to one of the better class of druggists who will sell you what you wish and the best of everything in his line at reasonable prices. 6 BIG BARGAINS IN OF HUMAN INTEREST;

The Boy Who Knew.

Professor Thomas C. Menhall, of the Worcester Polytechnic Institute, while traveling through Ohlo several years ago, called at the district school which, as a he had attended, says the Boston

STORIES OF THE DAY

Post.

They asked him at the school to make a few remarks. He assented, and begin to talk to the children in a direct fashion, trying to interest them from the start, "Did any of you," he said, "ever see an abahant's skin?"

A boy held up his hand and wriggled excitedly.
"Well," said Professor Mendenhall to

"I have," said the boy.
"Where did you see it?" the professor

"On an elophant," was the roply.

A High Class Convict. A minister was in the county jall hav-ing a talk with the prisoners. He is a kind-hearted old gentleman, and he wan-dered about shaking hands with the un-fortunates, at the same time giving each a word of encouragement, says the Pitts-burg Press.

a word of encouragement, says the Interpretage of the ton ther, and there he found a darky doing some work along the range. As it was Sunday the minister asked him why he was working on that day. The darky replied that the work had to be done and he thought he would do it when he had a good opportunity.

"How long will you be here?" asked the man in the ministerial garb.

"Well, I dunno, boss," replied the colored man, continuing his work.

"Do you think it will be long?"

"Are you serving time for disorderly conduct?"

The darky drew himself up to his full

The darky drew himself up to his full height and replied, with considerable dignity: "No, sah, I'se no common crimi-nal; I'se a highway robber."

Knew How to Fix It.

Knew How to Fix It.

A Maine farmer who had gone to law with a neighbor, suggested to his lawyer that he send the magistrate a counle of fine ducks, "Not on your life," said the attorney; "if you do you'll lose the case." The case came on and was tried, and judgment was given in his favor. Then he turned to the lawyer and gleefully exclaimed: "I sent the ducks." As tonishment on the lawyer's part changed to admiration when his client continued, "But I sent them in my opponent's name."

Sat for His Enemies.

Sat for His Enemies.

The late Thomas B. Reed's portrait was painted by Sarspent during the last year of his service in Congress. When it was brought to him he looked at it critically. He noted the protruding lips, the faithful reproduction of his florid complexion, of his flabby cheeks, of his pondarous neck. His eyes narrowed between the lids, and there came a cold glint in them. Than, pursing his lips as was his wont, he is said to have remarked: "I hope that my dearest enemy is satisfied now."

Senator Daniel's Joke.

Senator Daniel's Joke.

Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, who talks exceedingly well, both publicly and privately, was discussing the relative morits of great military commanders, and declared that though Washington was, all in all, the most admirable character in history, he was not a great general, says the Saturday Evening Post.

Senator Daniel, of Virginia Blackburn's closest friend, was dozing upon a sofa in the cloak-room, and I celled his attention to what Blackburn had said about our first President.

"Oh," replied Daniel, "Blackburn has a personal grievance against Washington,"

"What grievance have I against him?"

a personal grisvance against washing ton."
"What grisvance have I against him?"
exclaimed the Kentucky Schator hotly
"Well," said Daniel, Washingtor couldn't tell a He."

Cornell at St. Louis.

GROCERIES. Dressed Chickens and Turkeys at Low Prices.

HIGH CLASS DRUGGISTS

The better class of druggists, everywhere, are men of scientific attainments and high integrity, who devote their lives to the welfare of their fellow men in supplying the best of remedies and purest medicinal agents of known value, in accordance with physicians' prescriptions and scientific formula. Druggists of the better class manufacture many excellent remedies, but always under original or officinal names and they never sell false brands, or imitation medicines. They are the men to deal with when in need of anything in their line, which usually includes all standard remedies and corresponding adjuncts of a first-class pharmacy and the finest and best of toilet articles and preparations and many usually accessories and remedial appliances.

best of toilet articles and preparations and many useful accessories and remedial appliances.

The earning of a fair living, with the satisfaction which arises from a knowledge of the benefits conferred upon their patrons and assistance to the medical profession, is usually their greatest reward for long years of study and many hours of daily toil. They all know that Syrup of Figs is an excellent laxative remedy and that it gives universal satisfaction, and therefore they are selling many millions of bottles annually to the well informed purchasers of the choicest remedies, and they always take pleasure in handing out the genuine article bearing the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package. They know that in cases of colds and headaches attended by biliousness and constipation and of weakness or torpidity of the liver and howels, arising from irregular habits, indigestion, or of weakness or torpidity of the liver and bowels, arising from irregular habits, indigestion, or over sating, that there is no other remedy so pleasant, prompt and beneficial in its effects as Sycup of Figs, and they are glad to sell it because it gives universal satisfaction.

Owing to the excellence of Syrup of Figs, the universal satisfaction which it gives and the immense demand for it, imitations have been made, tried and condemned, but there are individual druggists to be found, here and there, who do not maintain the dignity and principles individual druggists to be found, here and there, who do not maintain the dignity and principles of the profession and whose greed gets the better of their judgment, and who do not hesitate to recommend and try to sell the imitations in order to make a larger profit. Such preparations sometimes have the name—"Syrup of Figs"—or "Fig Syrup" and of some piratical concern, or fictitious fig syrup company, printed on the package, but they never have the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of the package. The imitations should be rejected because they are injurious to the system. In order to sell the imitations they find it necessary to resort to misrepresentation or deception, and whenever a dealer passes off on a customer a preparation under the name of "Syrup of Figs" or "Fig Syrup," which does not bear the full name of the California Fig Syrup Co. printed on the front of the package, he is attempting to deceive and mislead the patron who has been so unfortunate as to enter his establishment, whether it be large or small, for if the dealer resorts to misrepresentation and and decention in one case he will do so with other medicinal agents, and in the filling of and deception in one case he will do so with other medicinal agents, and in the filling of physicians' prescriptions, and should be avoided by every one who values health and happiness.

AND - OTHERS.

Best American Granulated Sugar,

S. ULLMAN'S SON.

Downtown Stores, 1820-1822 East Main Street. Uptown Store, 508 East Marshall Street. 'Phones at our two Stores.

Special Sale

Opera Glasses

at about ONE HALF of their usual value, to make room for new im portation and preceding to removal to our new quarters. This is an exceptional Opera Glass opportunity for Xmas presents or personal use.

...The... S. Galeski Optical Company.

Manufacturing Opticians and Expert Adjusters of Spectacles, Eyeglases, Artificial Eyes, Etc.

NOW IS THE TIME To Order Your Books For the New Year.

Do not wait until you want to open them. Order now and have them realy for use. Write or 'phone (1502).

SIMONS BLANK BOOK CO..

Designers and Manufacturers of BLANK BOOKS.

Portieres

WEARE showing a very handsome line of heavy Curtains, of all the latest designs and colors, in Tapestrie and Velours. See our line and price. They are sure b please you.

Carpets,

Lace Curtains,

Window Shades.

ANDERSON'S CARPET HOUSE.

215 East Broad Street.

Can Cancer Be Cured 7 It Can.

Without the use of the knife we cure Cancers. Tumors and Chronic Sorea, charging nothing for examination. On patients are our best friends. Come and see the cancers we have removed and cured from air now happy patients, and are daily curing. They are wonderful if then you are not satisfied, we will pay all your expenses.

Kellam Cancer Hospital Twelfth and Bank Streets.

As an inducement for you to try our ew way to repair shoes, we will accept this advertisement for

25c. CASH DISCOUNT ON WHOLESCLING. Regular Price, Men's Shoes, $1,00; Regular Price, Ludies' Shoes, 85s.

Every pair sewed. No nails or pegs.

DREW'S ELECTRIC POWER SHOE FACTORY,

Best leather,

No. 716 E. Main Street. 'Phone 1667. Good until December 5th.